

Care Pathways to Promote Quality in Scotland

National Conference

Tuesday 25th May 2010

Inchyra Grange Hotel, Polmont (near Edinburgh)

The first national conference of the newly formed Scottish Pathways Association is taking place on Tuesday 25th May at the Inchyra Grange Hotel near Edinburgh. Keynote speakers include Derek Feeley, Director of Healthcare Policy and Strategy, Scottish Government and Dr Kris Vanhaecht, Secretary General of the European Pathway Association. The event will showcase the role of clinical/care pathways in promoting improved quality of care. This event is free to all NHS staff in Scotland. To register and obtain a full programme and/or submit and abstract please visit our website:

www.scottishpathways.com

Closing date for abstracts is Friday 16th April 2010 and for registration is Friday 14th May 2010. Spaces are limited, so please register early.

This conference will be relevant to:

Policy makers, senior managers and executives, clinical staff (including doctors, nurses and allied health professionals), as well as clinical governance and effectiveness staff involved in developing and implementing care pathways. Conference attendees are encouraged to bring examples of care pathways they are using or developing to share at the meeting. Space will be provided for showcasing and networking.